POLICE

319 CFS (2019) 537 CFS (2020)

Calls for Service Totals

January-March

The Police Department has shown an increase over 1st Quarter 2019, from 319 Calls for Service to 537 Calls for Service.

Officers available 2019:

- Bennett – Curry – Shultz

Officers available 2020:

- Bennett – High – Strodman – Minnis – Lofton
- Bouldin (unavailable due to deployment)

Contributing factors to an increase in total calls:

- Proactive protocol – actively looking for criminal activity
- Officer availability – potentially less calls being forwarded to CCSO

Drug, Juvenile, Crimes Against Minors, and Medical/Fire Assist calls were comparable from 2019 to 2020. Miscellaneous calls (ex: Citizen Assists, Follow Up Investigations, 911 Hang Ups, Peace Disturbance, Check Well Being, etc.) have increased from 151 to 245. Graphs to follow for increased activity in other select categories.

Traffic Stop Contacts have increased from 128 to 211. DWI's, DWR/S, Violation Warnings and Motor Vehicle Crashes remain consistent. Notable increases:

- Failure to Register – 2 to 18 • Stop Sign Violation – 0 to 6 • Seat Belt Violation – 4 to 17 • No Insurance – 5 to 24 • Warrant Arrests – 0 to 5 • Excessive Speed – 10 to 41

o Of the 41 violations, 26 were in relation to 11-20 mph over limit

Animal calls doubled from 11 to 22, with 21 of those calls being in reference to Animal at Large/Barking Dog; Having 0 in 2019, there was an uptick for 1st quarter 2020 to a total of 8. All 8 are accounted for in the umbrella of Domestic, to different degrees. 23 total Larceny/Burglary calls for service took place between 2019 and 2020, 19 of which occurred this year. Of the 19, 10 are categorized as Theft/Stealing (2 in 2019), 6 are Fraud/Forgery (0 in 2019), and 3 are Burglary (1 in 2019).

MODOT / Missouri Safety Center – Reimbursable Subaward granted to CPD for Click It or Ticket Enforcement Campaign. This will be $300.00 in total. CPD also participated in the February Speed Enforcement Campaign, and the St. Patrick's DWI Enforcement Campaign, but these were not grant-funded due to our application being processed during the times of those events.

REJIS CARE – Report and Case Management has been selected to utilize for the upgrade from our current situation, which is Microsoft Word Documents and Files. This particular program is housed by the St. Louis County Police and we are going through the building process. This will have a start up price of $3,841.75, which turns out to be $3,004.00 one-time cost, with $57.75 monthly fee, and a $780.00 annual fee.
