By signing this permit, you give the City of Clever authorization to access the permit holder's property, including fenced areas, for necessary inspections and code enforcement regarding this permit. A chicken permit shall not be deemed valid unless signed by the permit holder. It is the owner's responsibility for the containment of their chickens. If chickens are found outside of their contained area, they are subject to be removed by Animal Control and may not be able to be reclaimed. The City of Clever has full authority to deem this permit invalid/void at any time if see fit.
